This case was the result of a investigation by the Bureau of Alcohol Tobacco Firearms and Explosives and the Jasper, Indiana, Police Department.

HENTRUP admitted that he stole firearms from Sportsmans Unlimited, a licensed firearms dealer located in Jasper, Indiana, while he was an employee of the business between July 1, 2004, and March 29, 2005. According to Assistant United States Attorney Todd S. Shellenbarger, who prosecuted the case for the government, Judge Young also imposed 3 years supervised release following HENTRUP's release from imprisonment. HENTRUP was ordered to make restitution in the total amount of $7,860.
